AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Having considered the sentencing factors enumerated at 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), including the advisory guideline range of 12 to 18 months based upon an adjusted offense level of 13 and a criminal history category of I, the Court imposes the following sentence:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per month, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $122,494.05 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as set forth on the victim list prepared by the probation office. If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in this judgment.

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest in light of the civil penalties that have already been imposed.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Toby George Scammell, is hereby committed on Count 1 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of three months (ninty days).

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of four years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
4. The defendant shall participate for a period of six months in a home detention program which may include electronic monitoring, GPS, Alcohol Monitoring Unit or automated identification system and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall maintain a residential telephone line without devices and/or services that may interrupt operation of the monitoring equipment.
5. The defendant shall pay the costs of home confinement monitoring to the contract vendor, not to exceed the sum of $12.00 for each day of participation in the electronic monitoring, GPS, and/or voice recognition program. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.
6. The defendant shall comply with any issued Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) injunction relating to the defendant's activities.
7. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving investment programs without the express written approval of the Probation Officer prior to engaging in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists, and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer.

USA vs. SCAMMELL, Toby G.Docket No.: CR 13-00733-SJO

8. The defendant shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes owed for the years of conviction, and shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes during the period of community supervision. This applies not only to I.R.S. taxes but California State Franchise Tax Board taxes that may be owed. The defendant shall supply proof to the probation officer in compliance with this order.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, September 22, 2014. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time to Royal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

In regards to the civil judgment, it is ordered that within 30 days after the defendant's release from custody, he shall commence payments in the sum of $1500 per month and show proof of payment to the probation department. The Court further orders that any monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance judgments anticipated or financial gain are to be paid to his financial obligation, restitution here and also to the money owed in the civil proceeding of $800,000.

The Court advises the Defendant of his right to appeal.

The bond shall be exonerated upon surrender.

In the interest of justice the Court grants the government's motion to dismiss all remaining counts.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
